

WALKTHROUGH INSPECTION CHECKLIST

PROPERTY ADDRESS: _____ DATE: _____

A home inspection is essentially a “snap-shot” of the property condition at the time of the inspection. An issue that arises once the inspector has left the property is a “latent defect”. The general law regarding the sale of Real Property defines latent defect as a fault in the property that could not have been discovered by a reasonably thorough inspection before title transfer. Please know that the property condition can, and often does change, from the time of the inspection to the time of title transfer. The general law of the sale of property is caveat emptor (buyer beware) and that buyers have a duty to inspect their purchase before taking possession. Due diligence is certainly more than just a home inspection, which is why a thorough final walkthrough is paramount.

The following aspects of the above referenced property have been personally inspected by the undersigned Buyer(s) or their authorized representative.
